

NEXT LINK

Nextlink appoints GadgeTec as a new distributor of INVISIO consumer headsets in Sweden and receives an order for INVISIO B3.

Stockholm, Sweden (June 20, 2007) – Nextlink has appointed GadgeTec as a new distributor of INVISIO consumer headsets in Sweden and GadgeTec has placed the first order for INVISIO B3 headsets to be sold on the Swedish market.

Nextlink develops and markets in-ear headphones and headsets for mobile phones and two-way radios based on the company's patented technologies. Nextlink has built its reputation supplying products to police forces, fire fighters, military personnel, security units and Special Forces around the world.

"As our new line of consumer products now become ready for shipment we will be appointing a number of strong distribution partners for key markets in Europe" said Nextlink's acting CEO Lars Højgård Hansen.

"GadgeTec has a very strong track record with consumer electronic channels in Sweden and we are very pleased to partner with them" adds Lars Højgård Hansen.

"Nextlink stands for innovation and advanced technologies with focus on consumer benefits and as such they fit perfect with our distribution concept" said Christian Hallberg, CEO of GadgeTec AB.
