Nextlink appoints permanent CEO

Present acting CEO Lars Højgård Hansen confirmed as permanent CEO of Nextlink AB

The board of directors of Nextlink AB has today agreed to appoint Lars Højgård Hansen as permanent CEO of the company. Lars, who has served as acting CEO of Nextlink since the first quarter of 2007, joined Nextlink in April 2006.

Commenting on the appointment, the chairman of the board says:

"The board of directors is very satisfied with Lars Højgård Hansen's work during the first half-year. He has made a substantial and very important effort to ensure that product development remained on schedule and that the products are now ready. Lars' broad experience from his previous work within the sector will prove invaluable when we launch our market offensive."
